

(24)
Spring 1994
REFERENDUM #5

COPY

THE TURNSTILE: THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

"Through your full and open participation in our referendum, we can demonstrate our commitment to democracy, our concern for the future of our university, and our desire to have our voices heard."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

"We are asking you to support the following five measures which will help us to meet our financial obligations and to maintain our quality of life."

Fall 1993

Spring 1994

Fall 1994

RECOMMENDED